➡ Federal Taxes

Employee Taxes—Employers are required to withhold Social Security (FICA) taxes from the wages of employees and are responsible for the taxes whether or not they have been collected. Employers are also required to withhold income taxes at the request of the employee.

Unemployment Tax—This tax, known as FUTA, is assessed only on the employer. Annual tax returns must be filed.

Individual, Partnership, and Corporate Income Tax—Individuals and single shareholder LLCs engaged in a business activity must file a Schedule C (Profit or Loss from a Sole Proprietorship) with their individual income tax returns. Partnerships should file Form 1065 (Partnership Income or Loss), with each partner's share of the taxable income or loss then being distributed to each partner's individual income tax return. Corporations should file Form 1120 (US Corporation Income Tax Return) or 1120S (US Subchapter S Corporation Income Tax Return).

Opening a Business— A Guide to License & Tax Requirements

➤ Business License

The Commissioner of the Revenue assesses a business license tax on the privilege of conducting business within Chesterfield County. The tax applies to most businesses within the County, including home-based businesses.

Licenses must be obtained prior to beginning business. A late payment penalty of up to 10% (subject to a minimum penalty) and interest will be imposed if the license is not obtained within one month of the start of business. Renewal applications and payments must be filed annually on or before March 1st.

1. Complete the Application for Chesterfield County Business License.
2. Complete the Business License Classification Questionnaire. Note: All applicants are responsible for ensuring that the business location is properly zoned for the intended use. Contact the Planning Department at (804) 748-1050 for more information on zoning.
3. Remit these forms along with your payment and any required attachments to: Commissioner of the Revenue, Attn: Business License, PO Box 124, Chesterfield, VA 23832-0124

➤ Registering a Trade Name

Visit the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court in the Chesterfield County

Courts Building in person only if you will be operating a business under an assumed or fictitious trade name. Trade names that include the sole proprietor's last name do not need to be recorded. Trade names using only an individual's initials or any other fictitious names that differ from the actual sole proprietor, partnership, LLC, or corporate name must be recorded with the Clerk's Office, and proof of registration must be submitted to the Commissioner of the Revenue before a business license may be issued. Clerk's Office: (804) 748-1209; business hours are M—F 8:30—5:00.

➤ Contractors

Register with the State Board for Contractors, located at 3600 West Broad Street, Richmond, VA (ph. (804) 367-8511, www.state.va.us/dpor) only if you accept individual contracts of $1,000 or more, or if you have total gross receipts in excess of $150,000 during any 12-month period. Contractors subject to this requirement must provide the State Board registration number on their business license applications. Also, all contractors must complete and submit a Contractor's Certification of Insuring Liability for Workers' Compensation in Virginia form to the Commissioner of the Revenue before a business license may be issued.

➤ Registering a Corporation, Limited Partnership, or Limited Liability Company

All corporations, limited partnerships, and limited liability companies conducting business in Virginia must register with the State Corporation Commission. For more information, contact:

➤ Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN)

Every employer is required to have a federal employer identification number. To apply for the number, file Federal Form SS-4, which can be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service at (800) 829-1040 or www.irs.gov.

➤ Business Tangible Personal Property Tax

Chesterfield County levies a tax on all tangible personal property used or available for use in a trade or business and sited (located for tax purposes) in Chesterfield on January 1st. The tax applies to assets such as furniture, equipment, tools, office equipment, and computer equipment, even if such assets were obtained and used for personal use prior to opening the business. A Return of Business Tangible Personal Property must be filed annually by March 1st for all businesses that owned or leased property in Chesterfield as of the previous January 1st.

➤ Machinery and Tools Tax

All entities owning machinery and tools used in manufacturing, processing, mining, radio or television broadcasting, water well drilling, dairy, dry cleaning, or laundry businesses sited in Chesterfield County on January 1st must report such property annually by March 1st on a Return of Machinery and Tools. All other tangible personal property (except motor vehicles) that is used by any such business (except processors) is deemed to be intangible property and is exempt from local taxation.

➤ Other Taxes

- Transient Occupancy Tax—applies to room or space rental at hotels, motels, bed and breakfast facilities, trailer parks, and campgrounds for periods of 30 consecutive days or less. The tax rate is 8% of the charge for the room or space only.
- Short-term Rental Tax—applies to the gross rental charge for rentals of tangible personal property for periods of 92 consecutive days or less. The tax rate is 1% of the rental charge. Common examples of taxable rentals include rentals of items such as DVDs and video tapes, carpet and floor cleaning machines, and household or yard maintenance equipment.
